Cybercriminals often use malicious links in scam emails to trick users into revealing sensitive information. To help protect you, the WDC will never use an email or links in an email to ask your User ID, Social Security number, account number, password, or the answers to your password-recovery security challenge questions, such as your mother's maiden name or place or birth. If you receive a scam email claiming to be from the WDC, don't click on any links or attachments and call (877) 457-9327.
