This ordinance is cited as the Bayfield County Ethics Ordinance.

Sec. 2-4-2 Purpose.

The purpose of this ethics ordinance is to establish ethical standards of conduct for all Bayfield County officials and employees by identifying those actions that are not compatible with the best interests of the County. The County Board believes that a code of ethics for the guidance of County officials and employees in serving the County will help officials and employees avoid conflicts between personal interests and public responsibilities, will improve standards of public service and will promote and strengthen the faith and confidence of the people of Bayfield County in their officials and employees. To this end, the policy of the County is that:

- A. Officials and employees are independent, impartial and responsible to the people;

They are further bound to observe in their official acts the highest standards of morality and to discharge faithfully the duties of their office regardless of personal considerations. The public interest must be their primary concern.

Sec. 2-4-6 Fair and Equal Treatment.

- A. Use of Public Property. An Official or Employee shall not use or permit the use of County services or County-owned vehicles, equipment and materials for non-governmental purposes or for personal convenience or for profit.
- B. Obligations to Citizens. An Official or Employee shall not grant any special consideration, treatment or advantage to any citizen beyond that which is available to every other citizen.

Sec. 2-4-7 Conflicts of Interest.

- A. Financial and Personal Interest Prohibited. No Official or Employee shall engage in any business or transaction or shall act in regard to financial or personal interest, direct or indirect, which: (1) is incompatible with the discharge of his or her duties; (2) would tend to impair their independence of judgment or action in the performance of their official duties; or (3) is contrary to the provisions of this ethics ordinance.
- B. No Financial Gain or Anything of Value. Except as otherwise provided or approved by the County Board, no Official or Employee shall use his/her public position or office to obtain financial gain or anything of value for the private benefit of himself/herself or his/her immediate family, or for an organization with which he/she is associated. This paragraph does not prohibit a county elected official from using the title or prestige of his/her office to obtain campaign contributions that are permitted by and reported as required by Chapter 11 of the Wisconsin Statutes.
- C. Incompatible Employment. An Official or Employee shall not engage in or accept any private employment or render any service for a private interest when such employment or service is incompatible with the proper discharge of their official duties or which may impair their independence of judgment or action in the performance of their official duties unless as otherwise permitted by law or unless disclosure is made as hereafter provided. An Employee shall obtain prior approval from their Department Head, or in the case of a Department Head, from the applicable home committee, before engaging in outside employment. Any authorized outside employment must not conflict with the Official's or Employee's ability to do their job with the County and must not otherwise violate any provision of this ethics ordinance.
- D. Use or Disclosure of Confidential Information. An Official or Employee shall not, without lawful authority, knowingly disclose or permit the disclosure of confidential information to any person not lawfully authorized to receive such privileged information, or use confidential information to advance their personal financial interest or the financial interest of any other person or organization.
- E. Receipt of Gifts and Gratuities Prohibited. An Official or Employee shall not solicit or accept from any person or organization, directly or indirectly, anything of value without full payment, if it could reasonably be expected to influence their vote, governmental actions or judgments, or if it could reasonably be considered as compensation or a reward for any governmental action or inaction. It is not a conflict of interest for an Official or Employee to receive an unsolicited item of insignificant value or anything that is given to them independent of their position as an Official or Employee. This provision does not prohibit an Official or Employee from engaging in outside employment in accordance with this ethics ordinance.

- F. Nepotism. An Official or Employee shall not hire, promote or advocate for the hiring or promotion of any member of his or her immediate family. An Official or Employee shall not directly supervise any member of his or her immediate family. An Official or Employee shall not approve or advocate for approving increases in the rate of pay or benefits of an immediate family member.
- G. Contracts. No Official or Employee shall, in a private capacity, negotiate, bid for, enter into, make or perform a contract in which the Official, Employee, immediate family member of the Official or Employee, or any business or organization with which an Official, Employee or immediate family member is associated, has a direct or indirect financial interest, if the Official or Employee is authorized or required by law to participate in the Official's or Employee's capacity as such Officer or Employee in the making of that contract or to perform in regard to that contract some official function requiring the exercise of discretion on the Officer's or Employee's part. If the Official or Employee will not be involved with the contract in an official capacity, the contract may be allowed only if awarded through a process of public notice and competitive bidding in conformity with all applicable laws. This provision is intended to comply with, and in no way contradicts or invalidates the guidelines in Wisconsin Statute § 946.13.
- H. Financial Interest in Legislation. A member of the County Board who has a financial interest in any proposed action before the County Board, or whose immediate family member has a financial interest in any proposed action before the County Board, shall fully disclose the nature and extent of such interest to the County Board Chair prior to the initial discussion of such action and shall refrain from participating in the discussion of, and voting on, such action. A member of the County Board shall request to be excused by the Board or Committee Chair for the duration of any deliberations concerning such action in which the member has a financial interest. Any other Official or Employee who has a financial interest in any proposed action before the County Board, and who participates in discussion with or gives an official opinion or recommendation to the County Board, shall first fully disclose the nature and extent of such interest to the County Board.
- I. Business Interest. An Official or Employee shall not engage in any business, transaction or act in regard to any financial interest, direct or indirect, which:
1. Is incompatible with the proper discharge of their official duties for the benefit of the public;
 2. Is contrary to the provisions of this Code; or
 3. May impair their independence of judgment or action in the performance of their official duties.

- J. Unfair Persuasion. No Official or Employee may use or attempt to use his or her public position to influence or gain unlawful benefits, advantages or privileges for himself or herself or others.
- K. Issuance of Permits. No Official or Employee empowered to issue a discretionary permit pursuant to either state or local laws or regulations shall issue any such permit to himself or herself or to any member of that Official's or Employee's immediate family without first revealing in writing the request for such permit to that person's immediate supervisor or to the County Board that regulates the subject of such permit and obtaining written permission from the person's immediate supervisor or the County Board to issue the same.

Sec. 2-4-8 Public Records and Property.

Pursuant to §19.21-19.39, Wisconsin Statutes, each and every Official is the legal custodian of and shall safely keep and preserve all property and things received from the Official's predecessor or other persons and required by law to be filed, deposited, or kept in the Official's Office, or which are in the lawful possession or control of the Official or the Official's Deputies.

Sec. 2-4-9 Political Activity.

Officials and Employees may engage in political activity provided that such activity does not interfere with the performance of their duties and does not involve the use of county equipment or property. Officials and Employees are specifically prohibited from directly or indirectly coercing any person to withhold or contribute monetary or other types of assistance to any political candidate, party or purpose.

Sec. 2-4-10 Wisconsin Statutes Incorporated.

The following Sections of the Wisconsin Statutes are hereby incorporated by reference and made a part of the ethics ordinance:

Officials shall comply with the Sections of Wisconsin Statutes incorporated in this Code and failure to do so shall constitute a violation of the Code of Ethics.

Sec. 2-4-11 Ethics Board.

This ethics ordinance hereby creates an Ethics Board.

Sec. 2-4-12 Complaints, Notice, Response and Initial Hearing.

A. Content of Complaints

All complaints shall be made in writing. The complaint shall state the specific provision(s) of the county ethics ordinance or Wisconsin statutes believed to have been violated and shall include sufficient information to support the allegations. The complaint shall also include all of the following: (a) the name, address and telephone number of the complainant; (b) the name, address and position of the individual who is the subject named in the complaint; (c) the facts constituting the alleged ethics violation(s) set forth clearly and in detail; (d) if complainant(s) believes that any board member has a conflict of interest or bias, it shall be stated in the complaint. Complaints that do not meet the minimum requirements set forth above shall be dismissed without prejudice. All written complaints shall be submitted to the office of the Bayfield County Clerk. The County Clerk shall forward the complaint to the chair of the ethics board and the corporation counsel. No action may be taken on any request or complaint filed later than one (1) year after a violation of this ethics ordinance is discovered or should have been discovered.

- B. Notice, Response and Setting of Initial Hearing. The Ethics Board shall send notice, including a copy of the complaint to the respondent and complainant within seven (7) business days of receipt of the complaint by the Ethics Board Chair. The notice shall be sent via certified mail or by personal service. The notice shall inform the respondent that he or she may file a written statement of his or her position with the board within ten (10) business days of the date the notice was sent. The Ethics Board shall set a time for an initial meeting on the complaint that is within fifteen (15) business days following the ten (10) business day deadline for response by the respondent. The initial meeting shall be set prior to the notice being sent out so that the notice will include the date, time and place of the initial meeting of the board regarding the complaint. An agenda shall be filed and posted prior to the initial hearing. The corporation counsel shall send a copy of the response(s) received from the respondent(s) to the Ethics Board and the complainant(s) at least five (5) business days prior to the initial hearing.

- C. Initial Hearing. The Ethics Board shall convene within fifteen (15) business days following the ten (10) business day response period for the respondent to determine if it has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the complaint and to determine if there is a basis for the complaint. The complainant shall be present. If the complainant does not personally appear, the Ethics Board may dismiss the complaint without prejudice. If the board determines that there is no basis for the complaint, the board may immediately dismiss the complaint with prejudice and without hearing. In determining if there is a basis for the complaint, the Ethics Board must review the complaint, assuming that every allegation is true.

If the Ethics Board determines that the verified complaint alleges facts that provide a reasonable basis to constitute a violation of the code of ethics or that an investigation of a possible violation is warranted, it may make an investigation with respect to any alleged violation after notifying the respondent in writing. Such notice shall state the nature and purpose of the investigation, the actions or activities to be investigated and the respondent's due process rights. The Ethics Board may, in its sole discretion, extend the deadlines for taking action on a verified complaint or request. Failure of the Ethics Board to take action within the time frames set forth in this subparagraph shall not preclude the Ethics Board from pursuing a complaint.

Sec. 2-4-13 Investigations and Enforcement.
